Making a lasting change: building resilience

- Personal resilience

Where people have the skills and capacity they need to thrive

- Economic resilience

Where our local economy benefits local people

- Community resilience

Where our community celebrates diversity, but also fosters a common sense of belonging and a shared identity

Libraries and Community Neighbourhood Centres are the hubs that bring the community together.

Community Neighbourhoods is the key engagement tool for other council services to connect with residents to improve the quality of their lives.

“I feel really happy. I am much more connected in the community and happy of the support given. My days are busy all week meeting new people with encouragement to push me to try activities.”
